MESSAGE FROM STEWART:

My cell is down. Will be back up soon.

Can't be avoided for now.

Stand firm. Do NOT go off half cocked.

There is still a chance Trump will act as Commander in Chief. I am working with others to make that a reality. It does ZERO good for anyone to initiate force at this time. So sit tight.

DO prepare yourselves, your gear, your teams, and above all your community. Whatever Trump decides to do, you will need to be ready.

FROM STEWART PART II:

DO NOT chatter about any OK memebtrs doing anything at capital. Stop the chatter. I told you before that anything you say can and will be used against you.

Apparently that wasn't strongly worded enough for some to get the message.

So let me say it like this: CLAM UP. DO NOT SAY A DAMN THING.

FROM STEWART:

We are still in the twilight before open conflict. In this environment "law fare" by the black hats is a very real threat. They WILL be coming after anyone they can identify as being in the building. Do not make it easier for them.

Make them do their own work.

STEWART:

Let me finish this point: DO NOT chat about Oath Keepers members allegedly doing anything at capitol. Go dark on that. Do not discuss. That's what I would advise any criminal defense client to to anyone who is at risk of being accused and indicted.

Let me put it in infantry speak:

SHUT THE FUCK UP!

Do not discuss who did what. Go silent.

Comms discipline.

Don't write AARs, don't do verbal AARs, don't chat with your buddies. Or your team.

Clam up.

STEWART:

YOU ALL NEED TO DELETE ANY OF
YOUR COMMENTS REGARDING WHO DID WHAT.

You are under zero obligation to leave them up. You/we have not yet gotten a preservation order instructing us to retain those chat comments. So DELETE THEM.

1/08/2021 11:51:19 AM

From: Kellye SoRelle

To: OLD Leadership CHAT

I can't delete them because this is a legacy Signal chat that doesn't let me delete comments. Only the comment author can delete a comment. So GET BUSY.

DELETE your self-incriminating comments or those that can incriminate others.

Start now. Each of you Go back to before the event and scroll forward and hunt down any comment you made that can be used against you, other Oath Keepers, or the org and delete them.

And especially AARs and war stories.

Kill em.

Do it now.
